WHY WE CHOSE IT:

We made note of this "soft contemporary" a few years ago when it was a featured residence on the AIA Tour. Unfortunately, we often lose track of our notes. Luckily, we became re-acquainted with the house as we ran the roads. Clean and simple on the outside, it somehow feels like the interior offers a perfectly neat and cool refuge from the summer heat.

WHY WE CHOSE IT: Our favorite part of this Highland Park estate is not the precision of the landscaping or the refinement of the French chateau. It's the regal center balcony, where we imagine ourselves giving a rousing speech to our loyal subjects.
